Pocatello in Danger of an Attack from Neighboring Tribes.

BOISE CITY (Idaho), Jan. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Advice from Pocatello state that the Indians on the Fort Hall reserve have been dancing and two hundred in warpaint have taken to the mountains with arms, causing great excitement. Gov. Wiley has been asked to order the militia to Pocatello, and probably a company of United States Cavalry at Boise will be sent to the agency. The Indians on the reserve number 1200 or 1500; more than half of whom are Bannocks, who caused the prolonged war twelve years ago. The people at Pocatello have almost no arms and the towns of Blackfoot and Eagle Rock are on the border of the reserve. The Indians who took to the mountains are working eastward toward Wyoming. The belief is expressed that if the Indians at Pocatello go on the war-path they will be joined by tribes on the Lemhi reservation who number 500, embracing 125 able-bodied bucks.

PORTLAND (Or.), Jan. 8.—Messengers received here do not confirm the report that the Indians are burning Pocatello. The citizens of that place fear that such an event might occur and are preparing themselves to meet it.

BOISE CITY (Idaho), Jan. 8.—There is no truth in the report about the burning of Pocatello. There is considerable excitement over the hostile attitude at Pocatello, Fort Hall Reservation. The Governor has sent the citizens of Blackfoot 300 guns and 3000 rounds of ammunition. This was at their request.

CAUSE OF THE OUTBREAK. SALT LAKE CITY, Jan. 9.—A special from Pocatello says: The town is in a state of great excitement over the actions of the Shoshone Indians on the reservation. Last night they indulged in a war dance and otherwise evinced a desire for bloodshed. Chief Mayer Jim declares that the Indians would fight, giving as a reason that "Bad Indians got bear grub and blankets; good Indians got nothing."

PLANS FOR SAFETY. The latest advice says that the people are fleeing for safety. The Indians are in warpaint and cannot be restrained. The Governor's Guards and United States Cavalry at Boise City, are now en route to Pocatello.

Requests from Blackfoot, Idaho, for transportation for arms have been sent to the Union Pacific authorities here. It is reported that 200 bucks are pilaging the ranches outside of the town of Blackfoot. It is expected by tomorrow that a sufficient force will be mustered to cope with the savages in case of attack.

THE SNAKES AND SHOSHONES. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—The Chronicle's Wells (Nev.), special says: About two hundred Snakes and Shoshones left this vicinity yesterday and today to attend to a ghost dance in Star Valley at the head of the Humboldt River. Chief Soldier Charlie claims that there is no danger of an outbreak, unless the Government attempts to stop the dance and force the Indians to remain on the reservation. It is unusual to hold these dances at this time of year.

TROOPS WILL BE SENT. WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Senator Dubois of Idaho tonight received a telegram from Superintendent Resseguie of the mountain division of the Union Pacific, saying that the Indians are camped outside of Pocatello, Idaho, and the citizens are very much alarmed. Dubois showed the telegram to Secretary Proctor, and was informed that orders had already been sent to the department commander to have troops sent.

ARMS FOR THE RAILROADS. SALT LAKE (Utah), Jan. 8.—In view of the rumors of Indian trouble at Pocatello, Acting Gov. Selts today secured from the commander at Fort Douglas 200 rifles and 5000 rounds of ammunition, to be sent up the railroad for the protection of its employees there.

AT PINE RIDGE. Many Deserters From the Camp of the Hostiles. PINE RIDGE AGENCY, Jan. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Agent Royer was removed today by the Department of the Interior, and Capt. Pierce of the First Infantry succeeds him. Royer says that his removal was brought about by political influences, and that no charges could be brought against him. Gen. Miles' view of the situation at present is about as follows: There are three or four hundred in the hostile camp who are trying in every way to influence the remainder not only to remain out, but to fight the matter to the end. Gen. Miles hopes that the better element will prevail, and destroy the influence of these wicked Brules. On this account he is exercising patience.

Gen. Brooke, from the camp on White Clay Creek, advises Gen. Miles that many of the principal men and chiefs will visit Gen. Miles tomorrow. The position of the various forces in the field being to narrow in the circle in which the hostiles are now gathered. It was reported that Gen. Miles would hold a conference today with Red Cloud, but he has decided to hold no more talks with the aged chief, having given him an ultimatum several days ago to abandon the hostilities or suffer the consequences.

The arrival of the old man is considered evidence of his good faith, as is also the effort he made yesterday to save Lieut. Casey's life by warning him of his danger. Red Cloud tells of a fight between the Ogallalas and Brules shortly succeeding the killing of Casey. The former made an attempt to return to the Agency. The Brules objected and fired a number of shots at the Ogallalas. Nobody, however, was injured. This morning about two hundred of the Ogallalas succeeded in getting away and came into the Agency.

Young Man Afraid of his Horse, with several members of his band, returned today from their friendly visit to the Brules and were granted an audience by Gen. Miles. Buffalo Bill arrived from Rushville at noon and had a talk with Gen. Miles. He was warmly greeted by several hundred Indians. He informed Gen. Miles that the Nebraska militia have extended their lines toward Pine Ridge several miles and mounted men patrol between the several companies, so that no Indians may pass through the lines. Gen. Miles approved the arrangement.

Old Red Cloud determined to leave the hostile camp last night, and with his wife walked sixteen miles to the Agency, getting here this morning. He used every endeavor to prevent the murder of Casey yesterday, and even sent a scout to warn him of his danger. Casey had turned and was returning toward the military camp when his cowardly Brules shot him in the back of the head.

One of the wounded squaws died today. She was shot in seven places. The surgeon directed the amputation of one limb, but when the buck outside heard of this, they protested so loudly that the amputation was given up. As a consequence, the woman died. Five more are not expected to live.

At the suggestion of Buffalo Bill Gen. Miles tonight sent out scouts to ascertain who the Indians are that have been seen at the head of Snake River south of the Nebraska line. Late tonight it is feared, the 300 Indians said to be coming are in camp three miles from the Agency.

ROYER DISMISSED. The Pine Ridge Agent Proves Unequal to the Emergency. WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Secretary Noble this morning sent a dispatch to Agent Royer at Pine Ridge, dismissing him from the service. The Secretary directs him to turn over the property to Capt. Pierce of the First Infantry, who will temporarily act as agent at that point.

This action, so far as the removal of Royer is concerned, was determined upon some time ago, when the officials of the Indian office learned that Royer was not proving equal to the emergency. The situation as summed up at the Interior Department today is about as follows: There are in all about twenty thousand Sioux Indians—men, women and children—on the northern reservations. Of this number 15,000 are accounted for, as they are living on the reservation in peace and not taking any part in the present disturbance. This leaves 5000 men, women and children to face the 8000 men now under command of Gen. Miles. The hostile camp is located seventeen miles north of the Agency, and a cord of troops has surrounded it with the exception of the south side, the object being to drive them into the reservation.

There is constant communication between the hostile camp and the Agency. The hostiles are well supplied with beef, but they have no sugar or coffee, except as they are supplied by "friendly" Indians. While the situation is regarded as hopeless for the Indians, yet it is believed that they have no intention of surrendering. It is predicted by some who are on the ground that there will be a battle on Sunday or Monday.

When the hopelessness of the fight against such odds is pointed out, the only explanation given is "The Indians are crazy." From reports received at the Interior Department the situation is believed to be serious, and the people of the Agency are very much disturbed.

Gen. Schofield today received a telegram from Gen. Miles detailing the circumstances of the killing of Lieut. Casey by the Indians as follows: Lieut. Casey was out with some of his scouts, hunting for a trail, and with one Cheyenne man and two Indians, an Ogallala and a Brule. The Ogallala warned Lieut. Casey that the Brules were bad and would shoot. As Lieut. Casey turned to go away the Brule fired, striking him in the back of the head. He fell instantly. This is a report of heavy firing in or near the hostile camp, that may be between the two factions of the Indian camp.

Secretary Proctor expressed his sorrow at the death of Lieut. Casey, and said: "I regarded him as one of the most promising men in the service. He seems to have been brutally murdered, for there was no galling going on when he was killed." Gen. Schofield this morning also received the following telegram from Gen. Miles, dated Pine Ridge Agency, January 8: "Seventy Indians came in from the hostile camp today. Reports from them are that Red Cloud, Little Wound, Two Strikes, Big Road and others will come in tomorrow."

RATIONS ARE PLENTIFUL. The Indians Cannot Complain of Scarcity of Food. PIERRE (S.D.), Jan. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] John Holland, chief of the Indian scouts of the Cheyenne country, arrived today and reports that everything is quiet on the Cheyenne. All the Cheyenne Indians are now at the Agency with the exception of those from Big Foot's and Hump's band, who went on the warpath, and they were nearly all killed in the late battle. Inspector Cisney arrived late this evening from Montana. He has inspected all of the agencies of the Sioux except the Cheyenne. He says that at Standing Rock there are in spirit and splendid shape, and certainly have nothing to complain of. Indeed, nowhere has he found rations short except at Rosebud and Pine Ridge. At those two, the appropriations have been delayed in passing, but by this time those who are behaving themselves are getting everything they need.

AN IOWA DANCE. BURLINGTON (Ia.), Jan. 8.—It is reported that the Musquokie Indians have been attacked with the Messiah craze in the southern part of Tama county, and have begun a ghost dance. Some apprehension is felt.

A Negro's Jealousy. PUEBLO (Colo.), Jan. 8.—William Davis (colored) this morning shot and killed his foster mother, Carrie Armsby, and foster brother, Jim Armsby. The murdered woman had given some property to a daughter, and this is supposed to have made Davis jealous.

The Vendetta Renewed. CHARLESTON (W. Va.), Jan. 8.—News reached here today from Logan county that the Hatfield-McCoy vendetta has been renewed, and that in a fight on Harts Creek, a few days ago, six men were killed.

Emma Abbott Will be Cremated. PITTSBURGH, Jan. 8.—It is understood that the cremation of the remains of Emma Abbott will be made in the Lemoyne furnace, Washington, Pa. She visited it some years ago and expressed a wish to be cremated there.

JACKSON'S DAY.

The Tribes Assemble to Honor Old Hickory.

A Discourse on "Pure Democracy" by the Stuffed Prophet.

He Finds Principles in the Platform to Cover Every Case.

A Democratic Banquet at Philadelphia on Jackson's Anniversary—Prominent Leaders of the Untrifled Present.

By Telegram to The Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Jackson day was celebrated tonight by the Democratic Association with a banquet at the academy, at which many prominent persons were present. Ex-President Cleveland was the orator of the evening, speaking of "The Principles of True Democracy."

Ex-President Cleveland spoke in response to the toast "The Principles of True Democracy." He eulogized the Democracy and its creed, and said: Parties have come and parties have gone, but there has never been a time from Jefferson's day to the present when the Democratic party did not exist, active, aggressive and prepared for heroic conflict. Not all who have followed the banner have been able to demonstrate, as an abstraction, why Democratic principles are best suited to their wants and the country's good; but they have known and felt that as their Government was established for the people, the principles and men nearest to the people and standing for them could be safest.

When laborers are in distress and their long hours of toil are so poorly rewarded that the money-owners eat out their substance, while they are every day being made to contribute to the favorites of governmental care, we know that all this is far removed from the "encouragement of agriculture," which our creed contemplates.

When we see the extravagance of public expenditure fast reaching a point of reckless waste, we remember that the "encouragement of agriculture" is an important article of the Democratic faith. When we see our political adversaries bent upon the passage of a federal law, with the scarcely veiled purpose of perpetrating partisan supremacy in elections, we will stubbornly resist such a dangerous and revolutionary scheme, obedience to our pledge for "the support of the State governments in all their rights."

Under anti-democratic encouragement we have seen a constantly increasing selfishness attached to our political affairs. Departure from the sound and safe theory that the people should support the Government, for the sake of benefits to all, has bred a sentiment, manifesting itself with astounding boldness, that the Government may be used as a means of private interests, through their willing agents in public places. Such an attitude is not only a danger to the country, but it is an estimate of the people's franchise so degrading that it has been openly and palpably debauched for the production of self-interest.

Money is invested in the purchase of votes with the deliberate calculation that it will give a profitable return in results to the politician or the investor. Another crime akin to this is the intimidation by employers of voters dependent upon them for work and bread. Nothing could be more hateful to true Democracy than such offenses against our free institutions. In several States the honest sentiment of the people has been in support of every man proposed for the rectification of this terrible wrong. To fail in their support would be to violate principle in the creed of true Democracy, which commands "justice care of the rights of election by the people."

Mr. Cleveland expressed the hope that Pennsylvania will not long remain behind her sister States in adopting an effective plan to protect her people's suffrage and added: In any event, the Democracy of the State can find justification in party principles not in party traditions. In the further extension of Democratic duty for failure to earnestly support and advocate the ballot reform principles of true Democracy which are enduring because they are just.

In the campaign which has just closed with such glorious results, while the party managers were anticipating a triumph in the midst of the continued illusion of the people, the people themselves and for themselves, in introducing Mr. Cleveland, spoke of him as a man who, with great courage, threw down the gauntlet of tariff reform, and like his great prototype, Jackson, practically declared by the eternal that his principle was right and should prevail.

Gov. Pattison, Congressman Brock-inridge and others also spoke. Secretary Bayard, Gov. Russell of Massachusetts, and others, also spoke. Mr. Cleveland occupied a box during the speaking.

CHALLENGED A JOURNALIST. Young Tillman Wants to Fight Reporter Gonzales. COLUMBIA (S.C.), Jan. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] A sensation was created today when the fact leaked out that James B. Tillman, a nephew of Gov. Tillman, had sent to N.G. Gonzales, of the News and Courier, a challenge to fight a duel.

Gonzales refused to notice him unless a written challenge was sent. No further action has been taken yet. This afternoon Gonzales published a statement, according to Tillman's friends say that the trouble was caused by an article Gonzales printed about Tillman being black-balled in a club, but it is said elsewhere that the real cause was severe remarks about Tillman and his nephew in a report of a political meeting.

Getting Even With the Monopoly. CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—A number of barbed-wire manufacturers began a conference with closed doors today. As near as could be ascertained the purpose was to either organize a general revolt of manufacturers from the control of the Washburn-Moen patent monopoly, or to organize a trust, including all of the wire factories in the West, the idea of the latter plan being to continue paying tribute to the monopoly and get even by raising the price of the product.

"THE PRINCE OF FOOLS." Mr. McGrath's Definition of Congressman Turner.

TORONTO (Kan.), Jan. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Steps are being taken looking toward the impeachment of Frank McGrath, president of the Kansas Farmers' Alliance, accused of being a party to an alleged scheme to elect E. J. Turner, Republican Congressman from the Sixth District, to the United States Senate. The matter will be brought before a special session of the Executive Board of the Alliance. McGrath and Coddington, who is also alleged to be in the supposed deal, are members of the board.

McGrath sent a copy of a letter to the public through the columns of the Associated Press this morning, in which he denies knowing anything of the authorship of the letter. In it he says that if the letter was written by Turner he is a prince of fools, and had no authority, right or encouragement for his action. McGrath adds that he believes the letter signed with Turner's name to be a forgery.

VIRCHOW'S VERDICT.

HE BELIEVES DR. KOCH'S REMEDY DANGEROUS TO LIFE.

It Injures the Human System More Than It Benefits It—The Result of Numerous Post Mortems.

By Telegram to The Times.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] A special dispatch to the Chronicle says: Prof. Virchow delivered a lecture before the Berlin Medical Society giving the results of twenty-one post-mortem examinations on bodies of patients who died after being treated with lymph according to the method employed by Dr. Koch. These examinations extended from the time the remedy had been first employed up to the end of December. Prof. Virchow declared that the injection of lymph increases the bacilli in the body and causes them to migrate to portions of the body previously unaffected, thus virtually generating a new infection. The professor also said the lymph invariably causes intense hyperemia in various parts of the body and endangers the life of the patient. It has not been clearly proved that the lymph would destroy the tuberculous tissue and it was dangerous to operate on weak patients. He declared much patient experimenting with lymph was still necessary to establish a clear judgment of the value of the new remedy.

THE POOR ARE SUFFERING.

Intensely Cold Weather Prevails Throughout Europe. LONDON, Jan. 8.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Severe weather has prevailed throughout England for some time, causing the deepest distress among the poorer classes of this city, especially the inhabitants of the East End. All outdoor trades have been suspended several weeks. A large number of persons who have been thrown out of employment parade the streets and solicit aid from the charitable to obtain the necessities of life for themselves and starving families.
